Hey Dayreans!

Super excited to say this, but YESSS lets do the #bbinvestments crash course!

I'm so incredibly humbled by all of your support! So I've decided that I'll host TWO events (30 Dec and 6 Jan) so you guys don't have to be left out!

The pictures below are a consolidated view of those of you who have said you'll be coming so far.

So the plans are underway for the free crash course â?? I've contacted a few venue sponsors last night but so far none has replied me.

My friend tried asking Scape but they rejected, saying that they no longer do sponsorships. Unfortunately, paying $500 â?? $1000+ to rent their space just isn't feasible, and I don't want to have to charge you guys for this.

No worries! I'm still praying hard that something will come in ð??ªð?•»

I'm just honestly a little worried about the venue now because I really wasn't expecting so many of you to be interested in what I have to share!

So for those on the "Good for either" list, if 30 Dec can't accommodate the huge number of people attending, will you be okay to attend the 6 Jan one instead? I've asked Wongamania to lend me their game sets again but will need at least 25 people attending before we can do the event againâ?¦

The other thing is, if we REALLLLY are super suay and cannot get a venue sponsor, I'm thinking of booking a private cafe instead. Unfortunately, many of them come with minimum spend, and it isn't something we can afford! Unless I get in insurance brokers or agents to sponsor this event but then that'll ruin the whole point of it rightâ?¦

This is the cheapest I've found so far â?? $400 for our slot. But will you guys want to pay $10 (40 pax max) to cover venue rental fees? ð???

Otherwise, if any of you have other ideas please do share with me! ð???ð???ð???
