What comes to mind when you think of weddings?

To me, a wedding is the biggest milestone in our lives â?? whether you're the bride or the groom.

It is such a symbolic moment of everything you've worked for together, everything you've been through as a couple â?? from the day you met till this point.

Words fall short of describing this magical occasion. For me, I truly hope to recreate a little of that magic next year when we walk down the aisle.

Marriage is about saying I do, for now and for the rest of our lives together. To have and to hold, always

It is about saying hello to a long road ahead of us, but knowing that we are on this journey together hand in hand makes it so much better.

Fairy lights! Instant gorgeous. Our venue is too bright to integrate some fairy lights, but I'm looking at streaming some up at the eating area so that our guests can feel like they're living in the magical moment too!

Super love this shot because it is so dreamy! Seriously feels like a fairytale come true. I want to have a shot like this during my pre-wed photoshoot!

And THIS. My jaw dropped when I saw this photo â?? it screams magic! Can I have something like this too?

Always loved the idea of swings, and they're quite special to N and me because we used to spend an early part of our dating history playing on the neighbourhood swings.

I'd also love to recreate this in Singapore but not sure where fits the billâ?¦

Flowers. Sparklers. Fairy lights. Braids. An umbrella (to shelter from life's storms).

What else should we have at our pre wed photoshoot? I'm thinking what props could recreate that magical feelâ?¦

I don't care if it is childish but these two darlings are definitely gonna be in some of the photos! We have had such beautiful memories with them. The doll was a gift to me from his mum :')
