A Creative Way to Impress a Girl?

Description

Saw this on a friendâ??s Facebook post this morning.

Itâ??s been quite some time since I last did a full-page newspaper ad placement for a client, but I vaguely recall our last 1/4 page ad cost us about $700. (Correct me if my figures are outdated!)

Guys, are you spending too much on Singaporean girls?

Ok, Iâ??ll concur that it is a pretty sweet and innovative gesture. If this guy can afford it, good for him! But to guys who complain that dating Singaporean girls are costing them a hole in the pocket and yet laud this move, thatâ??s quite an irony, isnâ??t it?

I can think of far better (and cheaper) ways to express your love and sincerity to a girl without having to break the bank. But thatâ??s a post for another day ð???

With love,
Budget Babe
