Acai bowl after our workout! If I'm in town and can't find anything below $8 to eat, I try to at least go for healthy foods so I feel better about the money I'm spending ð?? ð??, especially since I can't really make stuff like acai bowls at home by myself!

Anyone else thinks the same? ð?? ð??

Also attended my friend's wedding dinner yesterday, and the floral decor was so pretty!!! ð??• how I wish I could have taken them home ð??

On a sidenote, what happens to wedding flowers after a wedding??? #dayreflorists anyone knows? Such a pity if they just get ditched! That's what happened to my friend's wedding lunch flowers ð??ð???

I get super excited whenever I see a Cinderella carriage hehe. The first time I saw one at a wedding was my own! And this is the second one YAY! (also the first wedding I've attended after my own haha) #dayrebrides if y'all need recommendations for affordable carriage decor rental I can share the vendor I used!

The wedding was held at Furama City Centre and it was my first time attending a wedding there! Surprisingly the decor was super pretty?!? I loved this side floral arch set up which they placed along the sides of the aisle (8 in total iirc) for the couple to walk through, and the Cinderella carriage on stage.

They had these mini candle holders at each table too which was super gorgeous! But the waitresses took them away too soon ð???

Reunited with my friends! I love this bunch â?? our conversations were so random and hilarious lol. Extremely thankful for little reunions like these.

ð??•ð??•ð??•ð??•ð??•

My pretty friend wore a short gown! Ah, her figure is really suited for this (I wanted a short gown too but had so many scars from insect bites the months before my wedding that it just wasn't feasible).

Happy Mother's Day!

I refuse to pay $8 for a single cupcake (and my MIL nearly fainted when I told her the price ð???) so Twelve Cupcakes, which are good and affordable, shall be our plan!
