

Tomorrow's THE Day!

Description

I can't believe that after so many months of preparations, tomorrow is going to finally be the day!

We were up till 4am last night working on the final changes of the guest list, setting out all the helper ang paos we have to give, finalizing our honeymoon bookings and writing our vows. Our angpao figure is an insane 4-digit wow guess we forgot to include the $ x Number of people when we started on our budget ð??•

Got a full day today too!

#DayreBrides Gathering later at 4.30pm too!

Or should it be #budgetbrides rightfully since we are all there for a closed door opening of a budget gown rental shop haha!

All my friends are saying I'm such a last minute bride. Who else gets her evening gown one day (or technically 12 hours before her AD!?) ð???

Not enough time!!!!

â??â??â??â??-

Just had a nervous breakdown. Wow is this normal why am I feeling so stressed out one day before!! I couldn't find my veil, the ang baos were too stressful to handle, the itineraries for our honeymoon, all the decor shoes clothes gowns to bring to the dinner venueâ?!

We decided we're just gonna go home after the wedding instead of checking into a hotel cos we don't even have time to book and pack for a hotel stay ð?? seriously! More time plsssss.

We were supposed to rehearse our first dance before heading over to my place with the wedding gown but totally didn't have time to! Omgggggg.

On the way to our budget gowns studio to choose and collect my evening gown now! #dayrebrides who are coming please help me chooseeeee.

Belle?

Or navy midnight blue???

Lol I like how all of you guys were rooting for the Belle dress at first then switched to midnight blue after I posted me in them HAHA.

Thanks for all your inputs guys!! I decided to go with the blue one in the end!!! I loved the Belle dress too but just didn't think my skin tone looked good in it!

Here's me twirling in the midnight blue gown!

And here's the Beauty and the Beast gown! It is super pretty but I think this gown will be better for fairer brides? Cos my skin has yellow undertones so I look a bit dark here!
